

Wednesday of October, in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, the Senate shall be composed of one Senator from Anne Arundel county and the city of Annapolis, combined and one from each of the other counties in the State, and one from the city of Baltimore, who shall be elected by ballot, by a plurality of votes of the persons entitled to vote for delegates in the city or county for which they are to be elected,

Which was read.

After some debate thereon,

Mr. Smith moved that the house adjourn,

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Worthington moved that the house adjourn,

Resolved in the affirmative.

The House accordingly adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

---

TUESDAY, February 21st, 1837.

The House met. Present the same members as on yesterday, with the exception of Mr. Taylor, who is confined by indisposition. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

Mr. Carpenter presented a petition and other papers of Martha Turner, formerly of Charles county, praying a special act allowing her the control and guardianship of her infant children,

Which was read and referred to the committee on grievances and courts of justice.

Mr. Henderson presented a petition of sundry citizens of Cecil county, praying the passage of a law authorising the commissioners of said county, to levy a sum of money to build two bridges in said county,

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Henderson, Comegys and Peirson.

Mr. Ghiselin presented a petition of Samuel H. Townsend and others, of Prince George's county, praying that Susannah Windsor, may be placed on the pension roll of said county,

Which was read, and referred to the committee on pensions to indigent persons by county assessment.

Mr. Iglehart presented a petition of Leonard Mallonee, of Anne Arundel county, praying the passage of an act to authorise the Register of the Land Office to correct a certain line therein mentioned,

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Iglehart, Culbreth and Simmons.